

I enclose copies of our Consents and Notifications guidance, which outlines the duties of Charities to notify us or seek our consent in the event that they want to make specified changes, and our Charity Trustees guidance which outlines the duties of Charity Trustees and what they must do to comply with the law. For further information on the duties of charities to provide accounting information and annual returns to OSCR, please see our website www.oscr.org.uk.

As a body entered on the Register, East Renfrewshire Good Causes Fundraising Charity may refer to itself as a 'charity', a 'charitable body', a 'registered charity' or a 'charity registered in Scotland'. If it has been set up under the law of Scotland, or is managed wholly or mainly here, it may also refer to itself as a 'Scottish charity' or a 'registered Scottish charity'.

It will therefore be entered on the Scottish Charity Register as soon as possible, with the charity number SC038233.

(f) the advancement of citizenship or community development

Further to your application to us, I hereby give notice to you under section 72 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (hereafter referred to as 'the 2005 Act') that we are satisfied that East Renfrewshire Good Causes Fundraising Charity meets the charity test as laid out in sections 7 and 8 of the 2005 Act. In particular, it has the following charitable purposes under Section 7 (2) of the 2005 Act:
